Ashover Exhibition on Monday 4th May 2026.

What a brilliant exhibition! There were 120 paintings entered by 23 artists. 23 paintings sold with a total of £1,150. Although the weather was very cold there was a good foot -all all day. Many thanks to all stewards and those members who kindly helped both setting / packing up and throughout the day.

A reminder that Lynda Brown will be demonstrating her work as part of the Arts Trail this May. The event will be on 23rd—25th May and will give 37 artists across 6 venues the opportunity to display their work and invite you to come along and maybe purchase an original work of art. Lynda will be at The Pavillion at Holmebrook Valley Park S41 8XP. Times are 10 am to 4pm each day and entry is free. Please pop in and support Lynda who has some fabulous work to show.

THE BIG PICTURE

This was a very enjoyable evening on Friday 24th April where we all worked from a small piece of photograph given to us by Terry. It is never easy and although it is always a challenge when the finished pieces are put together it all makes sense (well almost!). Thank you Terry for your hard work again.

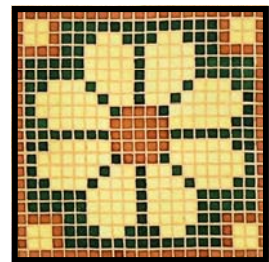

The artist is Ted Dyer. Born in 1940 in Bristol. A very popular modern day artist and has lived and worked in Cornwall since 1972. His work has a modern impressionistic feel. He prefers using oils but also uses watercolour and gouache. His work is linked to the Cornish landscape.
